MISSION

Pacific Oaks is an independent institution of learning influenced by its Quaker heritage and dedicated to principles of social justice, respect for diversity, and the valuing of the uniqueness of each person. Its primary focus is placed upon all needs of young children and their families, and all those who, in a direct or indirect manner, touch their lives each day.

Education at Pacific Oaks includes academic, research, clinical, and community outreach components to develop an understanding of those settings within which a child acts and which, in turn, affect a child's development. Pacific Oaks promotes educational practices within the institution, profession and public schools that encourage learners to find their own voices, to take stands in the face of opposition, and to exercise competence in collaboration with others.

"Make no little plans; they have no magic to stir men's blood."

These words attributed to Daniel Burnham (1846–1912) capture the spirit of Pacific Oaks. Our mission assumes responsibility for meeting the needs of young children and families. It powers our plans with big ideas: social justice, respect for diversity and valuing the uniqueness of each person.

These big ideas are being put into practice every day at Pacific Oaks. Our curriculum provides a foundation for a wide variety of helping professions. The training we offer enables you to become a highly effective teacher, counselor, administrator, or leader in the human services profession of your choice.

Some of the big plans we have in progress may give you a sense of the magic of Pacific Oaks:

- The Latina/Latino Family Project, an exciting new WIN from our Marriage, Family and Child Counseling department, will debut this academic year. This program will develop a cohort of highly skilled bilingual counselors to meet an urgent demand for them throughout the community.
- The Lasting Impressions Scholarship Campaign, begun in June 1996, is moving steadily toward its goal of raising $2 million dollars of combined endowed funds and immediately available funds to offset tuition costs.
- The need to serve more prospective teachers in California due to the reduction of class size, and to grow our Teacher Education and Credentialing Programs, has necessitated expanding to another building which we acquired in January 1998. This new site has great potential to be developed further as we grow.

As you explore these and many other possibilities within this catalog, we invite you to plan big. Your personal development, intellectual enrichment, and acquisition of skills can be magic in the lives of children and families.

Sincerely,

Carolyn H. Denham, Ph.D.
President

The requirements, programs, class offerings, fees, policies, and all other subjects covered in this publication may be changed without notice. Users of this publication should contact Pacific Oaks representatives to learn the current status of matters covered herein. Pacific Oaks assumes no responsibility for any damages which may be claimed to have resulted from such changes.

Pacific Oaks, located on two campuses in Pasadena, California, and Seattle, Washington, is a unique educational institution offering upper division and graduate-level college programs in human development and counseling, teaching credentials, a children's school serving infants through primary age children and their parents, and a research center supporting applied research in early childhood education.

Three basic concepts underlie the educational philosophy of Pacific Oaks: that growth is a dynamic and life-long process; that every individual has a fundamental worth; and that each person, no matter how young or old, has a unique identity and human potential which they contribute to the lives of all those with whom they come in contact.

Pacific Oaks was founded as a community education center and nursery school by seven Quaker families in 1945. The School quickly grew under the leadership of Molly Morgenroth and Evangeline Burgess as word spread that there was a place in Pasadena where children were valued as individuals. The teacher education aspect of Pacific Oaks grew out of the need to train teachers for the expanding nursery school.

In 1959, continued expansion led to accredited B.A. and M.A. degree programs in Human Development. These degrees are granted in Human Development rather than Education because we believe that a teacher must know the whole life continuum to understand her/himself and her/his students. Today, our programs serve not only educators, but persons working in other helping professions, including counseling and other human service fields.

The style of learning emphasized at Pacific Oaks is unique. In most colleges, a teacher lectures, students take notes and learning is evaluated by examination. We have a different approach. Pacific Oaks students are encouraged to work together and to learn from each other. The faculty works with students to help each individual obtain an education that meets personal needs. At Pacific Oaks, the process of learning is valued as much as what is learned.

Experiential learning, that is, learning by doing, is at the heart of Pacific Oaks' curriculum for adults as well as for children. We believe that both theory and practice are learned through action and interaction, and we encourage students to value doing as well as talking, reading and writing.

The Children's School also has grown to include the Infant/Toddler, Two-Year-Old, Preschool, Kindergarten, Primary, Child Care, and After-School programs.

Pacific Oaks' anti-bias commitment applies to all areas of discrimination, including that based upon race, ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, gender, age and physical ability. We expect respect to be shown towards persons in all categories, both generally and as individuals.

We ask that all members of the Pacific Oaks community be willing to engage actively in thought, discussion, and change as we all learn about the nature, dynamics and impact of bias and oppression and the ways in which theories, practices and institutions are oppressive. It is important that we be willing to risk growing and changing together rather than clinging to old theories and practices simply because they are familiar and comfortable.

OVERVIEW OF PROGRAMS

Pacific Oaks College offers upper division classes leading to a B.A. degree in Human Development; courses of study leading to four teaching credentials: Multiple Subject Teaching Credential and Education Specialist Credentials (Mild/Moderate Disabilities, Moderate/Severe Disabilities, and Early Childhood Special Education); graduate courses leading to two M.A. degrees: Human Development and Marriage, Family and Child Counseling; and a Post-Graduate Certificate program.

The B.A. in Human Development offers an upper division program focused on young children, their families, and the social contexts in which development takes place. Field experience or practicum in the Pacific Oaks Children's School is normally a part of the B.A. program. Students interested in public school teaching may enroll in a credential program upon completion of core B.A. requirements.

Our students at the College are learning to take their place as highly effective teachers, administrators and counselors — leaders in their field.

Our Children's School is teaching youngsters to be peacemakers, conflict resolvers and decision-makers. They are our future — a well-informed responsible, concerned citizenry.

Specializations are optional areas of focus for B.A. and M.A. students in Human Development. Some specializations are available only in Pasadena.

The College offers six specializations at the B.A. level: Child Care, Developmental Education, Early Childhood Education, Lactation Consultant, Work with Infants and Toddlers, and Art Education (limited to application after admission). Students may also, in cooperation with their advisors, design a study program directly meeting their needs and interests.

The Admission By Life Experience admissions option at the B.A. level offers students an opportunity to document, through presentations and papers, up to 30 units based on their learning from life experiences.

The M.A. in Human Development is offered for the preparation of leadership personnel in professions serving young children and their families. The degree is awarded on the basis of demonstrated competence in human development, knowledge of the social and political contexts of development, communication skills, integration of theory into practice and research. A Master's project, which is an original contribution to knowledge and understanding based on field experience, is required for the degree. Students interested in public school teaching may enroll simultaneously in a credential program.

The Admission By Life Experience option at the M.A. level offers students an opportunity to document competence equivalent to a B.A. degree from Pacific Oaks to begin graduate studies. This must be in conjunction with either the M.A. in Human Development or the M.A. in Marriage, Family and Child Counseling.

The option to do a specialization in the M.A. program is also available. The specializations are: Art Education; Bicultural Development; Child Care; Developmental Education; Early Childhood Education; Lactation Consultant; Work with Infants and Toddlers; Social and Human Services; and Leadership in Education and Human Services: Administration/Supervision, College Teaching/Teaching Adults, and Parent/Community Work.

The M.A. in Marriage, Family and Child Counseling expands the students' competencies in counseling families with young children, providing students with the educational qualifications for the California MFCC License.

Teacher Education programs are also open to graduate students not enrolled in the M.A. program. Pacific Oaks offers the California Multiple Subject Teaching Credential and Washington Teacher Certification (elementary), Special Education Credentials (Mild/Moderate Disabilities, Moderate/Severe Disabilities and Early Childhood Special Education), and CLAD (Crosscultural Language and Academic Development) and BCLAD (Bilingual Crosscultural Language and Academic Development) Certification.

The Multiple Subject Teaching Credential is structured in two tiers — the Preliminary and the Professional Clear. The Preliminary Credential is effective for a five-year period and is non-renewable. Before expiration, additional course work must be completed to obtain the Clear Credential.

The Pasadena campus of Pacific Oaks is located on four beautiful, tree-shaded sites in the heart of historic Pasadena. The craftsman-style bungalows of these campuses provide an idyllic, serene setting for our students. Only a half-mile from Old Town Pasadena, Pacific Oaks is surrounded by cultural resources: the Norton Simon Museum of Art, the Huntington Library and Art Gallery, the Gamble House and the Pacific Asia Museum.

The Pacific Oaks Pasadena campus offers classes during Fall, Spring and Summer semesters. Our convenient evening and weekend class schedules make it possible to earn your degree no matter where you live in Southern California. As a convenience for those who travel a distance, some weekend classes are scheduled all day over three weekends during the semester. In addition, weeklong classes are offered within each semester.

Pacific Oaks Northwest, located in Seattle, Washington, offers classes leading to the B.A. and M.A. in Human Development, as well as the Washington State Teaching Certificate. (Not all B.A. and M.A. specializations are offered at this site.) Weekend classes are offered in Seattle and other Northwest sites. Seattle also offers weeklong classes in January and July.

Pacific Oaks also offers an academic program in Northern California leading to the B.A. and M.A. in Human Development. Classes are offered on weekends during the Fall and Spring semesters. Weeklong classes are offered in June. Not all B.A. and M.A. specializations are available at this site.

The academic year includes two semesters, Fall and Spring; two time frames, Weekday and Weekend; several locations; online courses; and an eight-week Summer Session. One week sessions are also offered within each semester in Pasadena, in June in the Bay Area and in January and July in Seattle. ■

CURRICULUM PHILOSOPHY

The curriculum in Human Development, Marriage, Family and Child Counseling, and the Teacher Education programs is organized around five areas in which students are expected to be competent. The competencies are:

- Understanding of developmental theories.
- Understanding and valuing diversity, including an anti-bias approach.
- Ability to implement theories and empower others.
- Ability to communicate with others in a connective way.
- Ability to collect, process, and evaluate data through research.

Each of these competencies, except research, has a required approach class. These classes introduce active learning, as well as subject areas. Since the approach classes will also help students define their own areas of interest and learning needs, these classes should be taken early in a student's program at Pacific Oaks.

One level of approach classes is offered for B.A., M.A., and post-baccalaureate students who enter Pacific Oaks with beginning knowledge in a competence area. A second level of approach classes is offered for M.A. and post-baccalaureate students who enter Pacific Oaks with advanced knowledge in a competence area. The second level of approach classes may also be used as electives for M.A. and post-baccalaureate students in most programs.

All students must consult with their advisor regarding choice of classes when enrolling. The criteria to consider are listed on page 6 for B.A. students and page 10 for M.A. students.

TRANSFER REQUIREMENTS FOR THE B.A. DEGREE AND ABLE OPTION FOR THE B.A. AND M.A. DEGREES

Pacific Oaks offers only upper division and graduate level courses. Transfer requirements for admission to the B.A. degree program, and for admission to B.A. and M.A. degree programs through the Admission By Life Experience (ABLE) option include completion of a minimum of 60 semester units with a grade of "C" or higher. Only courses taken at colleges and universities accredited by regional commissions will be accepted. Please check with your transfer center to see if an articulation agreement is in place to assist you in selecting acceptable courses for transfer. The Pacific Oaks Director of Registration and Records determines whether or not a course is acceptable.

Applicants short of general education requirements may take CLEP (College Level Exam Program) tests to acquire units. A maximum of 30 units may transfer.

In addition to external transfer opportunities outlined above, applicants may transfer Pacific Oaks Community and Continuing Education courses to earn a maximum of 30 upper division transfer units. This would include Pacific Oaks Drug and Alcohol Studies courses and course credit awarded by portfolio assessment through the national CDA certification program (see page 23).

Bicultural Development Demographers are predicting that by the year 2000 people of color will be the largest collective segment of this nation's population. This is already the case in Los Angeles and many other urban centers such as San Francisco, Chicago, Miami, New York and Washington D.C. These cities and others have school districts where bicultural children comprise 75% of the students enrolled. Institutions wishing to meet the needs of a bicultural populace must be willing to alter their perceptions and, when necessary, their policies.

The Bicultural Development specialization has been designed to specifically prepare teachers, social service providers, and Marriage, Family and Child counselors with the necessary skills and training to effectively serve bicultural children and their families.

The Pacific Oaks philosophy of bicultural development incorporates a perspective that views children of color in the United States, regardless of the specific racial and ethnic orientation, as sharing a commonality of experience. The commonality of experience focuses on the fact that children of color are: 1) raised simultaneously in two distinct cultural systems which are often in conflict, and 2) subject to a different set of socioeconomic realities than those of mainstream children. As a result, these factors play a major role in the development of bicultural children and therefore must be understood by those who work in bicultural community settings.

■ M.A. IN MARRIAGE, FAMILY AND CHILD COUNSELING (MFCC)

The field of mental health is changing and the future will provide increased opportunities for therapists who can respond to the multiple needs of families and communities. The Marriage, Family, Child Counseling program offers a multidisciplinary, inclusive curriculum based on developmental, psychosocial and family systems theories. There is an emphasis on integrating the intrapersonal, interpersonal, family, and institutional issues to provide a holistic approach to understanding the theory and practice of marriage, family and child therapy.

The program at Pacific Oaks is designed to develop counselors with a strong clinical/community framework (focus) to practice therapy using a collaborative model that is respectful of the client's values and life experiences. Students are required to critically examine their own attitudes, beliefs, and values to become clinically skilled, culturally competent therapists.

Admissions A Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution or eligibility for admission through ABLE option is required for admission to the Master's in MFCC program. Clinical Placement Protocol This protocol has been developed to facilitate the process of selecting a clinical placement that is consistent with the standards of the Pacific Oaks MFCC program. The placement sites must meet the BBS regulations and PO criteria for an appropriate MFCC training experience.

The clinical training experience is a vital part of the student's professional development that requires a firm commitment to the agency site/program. The application and selection process is important and should be approached with a professional attitude in a timely manner.

The protocol has been designed to ensure this process and address the individual needs of each student. Each student will be expected to follow these procedures.

Eligibility for Clinical Placement is based on the following criteria:

1. Students must be fully admitted to the MFCC program.
2. Students must have successfully completed HD 505 Communication and Counseling Skills class.

Students will begin the application and selection process in the Spring semester and complete the process by June before they can enroll in the practicum classes, beginning the following Fall semester.

Therapy for Students The MFCC department strongly encourages the students in the Master's program to be in their own personal therapy while in the graduate program. To facilitate this process, the MFCC department has a referral list of carefully selected psychotherapists interested in working with our students at a lower fee. These therapists are from throughout the greater Los Angeles area. MFCC students are advised to contact their advisor or the clinical coordinator for referral.

Intern Registration Upon completion of the M.A. degree in Marriage, Family and Child Counseling, students apply to the BBS for an intern registration number. The intern registration packet can be obtained from the MFCC office or by writing to the BBS at:

Board of Behavioral Sciences
1021 O Street
Sacramento, CA 95814

There are periodic changes in the BBS regulations. Students are required to meet with their faculty advisor each semester to keep informed of these changes.

Latino/a Family Study Project

Currently there is a crisis in the provision of human services in Los Angeles because of the extreme lack of available bicultural/bilingual professionals to serve our diverse Latino/a families. The Latino/a Family Study Project in the MFCC Department focuses on recruiting, educating and developing mental health professionals who will be able to meet the following important objectives:

1. Have a clear, in-depth understanding of the specific mental health needs of children and families in our Chicano/Latina communities.
2. Possess the necessary cultural and cross-cultural sensitivity and clinical competence to effectively serve this varied population.
3. Possess the linguistic ability to serve Spanish-speaking monolingual clients and varying degrees of bilingualism within families.

The Latino/a Family Study Project is a full-scale M.A. in MFCC degree program with a special emphasis on the diverse mental health needs of Latino/Chicana children and families. It is available in a cohort group that meets for class in a monthly, three-day weekend intensive format. It requires the completion of 54 semester units, a clinical training component and a bilingual language component. The project is designed to fully meet the academic requirements of the California Board of Behavioral Sciences for the MFCC license. For further information please call Connie Destito, Academic Director of the MFCC Department at (626) 397-1327.

The program will focus on developing competencies in diagnosis, developmental assessment, and appropriate interventions in working with children who have special needs. There will be an emphasis on understanding the familial and social contexts in which psychological problems can develop.

The training program is open to Pacific Oaks' alumni, mental health professionals and teachers who have a Master's degree or teaching credential. It is an 18–21 unit program and is offered as continuing education through Community and Continuing Education. Students will be able to complete the program in one year. ■ POST GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

Pacific Oaks offers a Post Graduate Certificate for Advanced Study in Human Development or Advanced Study in Early Childhood Education.

This program is open to human services professionals who already hold a Master's degree from an accredited institution and wish to participate in the Pacific Oaks learning process. Admission is granted based upon the student's development of an individual plan to meet the areas of competency and to meet the student's own individual interests. The certificate will be awarded after an assessment of the candidate's competence in the five areas required by Pacific Oaks (Development, Social and Political Contexts of Human Development, Communication, Research, and Implementation). The certificate is awarded based upon the assessment and completion of 15 units of course work. Assessment of competence and program planning will be conducted by the program advisor. These units may be taken in Pasadena or through any Pacific Oaks Distance Learning option.

Program Advisor: Betty Jones, Ph.D.

The fall semester begins in early September and ends mid-December (15 weeks). The spring semester begins in January and ends near the end of May (16 weeks including one week Spring break). Each class is offered in three hour blocks once a week with a few exceptions. Most classes are scheduled from 4:00 to 6:45 p.m. or 7:00 to 9:45 p.m. Some one-unit classes are offered as weekend workshops, and a few classes may be offered from 1:00 to 3:45 p.m. Field experience and student teaching are scheduled mornings and afternoons.

Pasadena Summer Session begins in June and ends in July or early August. The eight week session includes weeklong and evening classes Monday–Friday and weekend classes. The B.A., Credentials, M.A. in Human Development, and some M.A. specializations may be completed by primarily attending summers. Depending upon the number of units required, it may take from two to four summers to complete a degree.

Three unit classes are offered twice a week on two alternate days for two hours and 45 minutes per day. Most classes are offered from 5:00–7:45 p.m.

Weekend classes are also offered during Summer Session.

PASADENA WEEKLONG CLASSES

Weeklong classes are offered each term, typically early in the semester. Weeklong classes are usually scheduled from 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., and run from Monday through Friday. Reading and writing assignments are required prior to the first day of class. Early registration is required.

Pasadena students may use nine units of Weeklong work toward their degree. If you wish to pursue more than nine units of college work through Weeklong classes, submit a written request to your advisor. The advisor will make a decision based upon your performance in other classes.

DISTANCE LEARNING

For students outside the Los Angeles metropolitan area, Pacific Oaks offers classes through:

- Pacific Oaks Northwest (branch campus)
- Pacific Oaks Northern California
- Pacific Oaks Online

Pacific Oaks distance programs are designed primarily for M.A. students. However, B.A. students may find that the programs meet their needs if (1) they are mature, self-directed learners, (2) they are strongly attracted by Pacific Oaks' emphasis on young children and families, and (3) they are looking for a part-time program to be integrated with work and personal life.

In the Northwest and Northern California, classes are offered on weekends in Fall and Spring, and as summer Weeklongs in June and July. Online classes are offered in Fall and Spring.

Northern California and Online students must take one or more classes on the Pasadena campus, depending on their program. Professional classes for Marriage, Family and Child Counseling and for California Teacher Certification are offered only in Pasadena. Pacific Oaks Northwest offers Washington Teacher Certification. Classes may vary by location; not all specializations are offered at all locations.

PACIFIC OAKS NORTHWEST

Debra Sullivan, Ed.D., Campus Dean

Pacific Oaks' branch campus in the Seattle area offers classes toward the M.A. and B.A. in Human Development and a teacher certification program.

Human Development For the B.A. and M.A. in Human Development, all required classes and a selection of elective classes are available in the Seattle area.

Seven or more classes are offered on weekends fall, spring, and summer. Additional classes, including Assessment of Experience (for ABLE students) and practicum options for B.A. students are offered as needed. Two or three Weeklong classes are offered in January and 4–5 Weeklong classes are offered in July. (For course offerings for credential students, see Teacher Education below).

Most students are enrolled part-time and extend their program over 2–3 years. However, it is possi-

"Pacific Oaks prepared me very well for my career in early childhood education.

The best part was getting to work with children at the Children's School while taking classes. Putting together theory and practice made a huge difference in my being able to walk into my new job with confidence."

Rick Dolsey, B.A. ABLE '95

Currently employed by the Board of Education, Fulton County, GA, as a Pre-K teacher at Seaborn Lee Elementary School.

As a service to Oregon and southern Washington students, outreach classes are offered in the Vancouver/Portland area on weekends during the academic year. One class each semester, including electives and some requirements, will be offered for as long as enrollment justifies.

Teacher Education Pacific Oaks Northwest offers a full-time, ten-month graduate program approved by the Washington State Board of Education which leads to teacher certification with endorsements in Elementary Education and Early Childhood Education. Upon completion of the certification program, students need only three additional classes and a thesis to complete their M.A. in Human Development. A B.A. is prerequisite to admission. This program has a separate application process and admissions are limited. The 12 additional units required for the M.A. in Human Development may be completed at the Northwest branch campus, in Pasadena, or in other distance learning locations.

All Northern California students also take one or more classes in Pasadena, with the number dependent on the student's program.

Two or more classes are also offered each year in the southern San Joaquin Valley, meeting in Visalia in fall and spring.

Most students enroll part-time and extend their program over several years. COMMUNITY AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

Community and Continuing Education (CCE) provides an opportunity to earn up to 30 upper division units of transfer credit toward a B.A. degree at Pacific Oaks College. In most cases, units earned through CCE can be applied toward the general education requirement for admission to the college and may be applied as electives toward the B.A. degree. CCE classes cannot substitute for the last 30 units for the B.A., which must be taken in regular Pacific Oaks College classes, nor can they be applied toward the Pacific Oaks M.A. degrees.

Community and Continuing Education offers classes in collaboration with a variety of public and private educational and human service agencies in Northern and Southern California. Designed to meet the needs of working early childhood professionals, these classes are held during weekends and evenings at work sites and other convenient locations.

Classes offered include: child development and curriculum to meet academic requirements under Title 22 and Title 5; parenting; and administration and supervision of early childhood programs.

Child Development Associates Pacific Oaks College continues to offer up to 30 upper division semester units to qualified individuals who have earned the CDA credential by the portfolio assessment method (before June 1992) and have completed at least 60 semester units of college. The amount of credit awarded is based on an evaluation of the applicant's profile and college transcripts. A fee is charged for evaluation. To apply, contact the Community and Continuing Education Department.

Open Enrollment Most classes listed in the current Pacific Oaks College Schedule of Classes are open to the public. Individuals may enroll in a class as a non-matriculating student for CCE credit if the following conditions are met: space is available at the first class meeting; student meets class prerequisites; and the instructor approves. For further information, contact CCE

CCE also offers credit for selected training programs, workshops and conferences such as those offered by Far West Labs, several Montessori programs, RIE, High Scope and the Computer Using Educators (CUE) Conference.

Classes for new professionals in teaching are also offered. For further information, contact :

FINANCIAL AID

Pacific Oaks awards financial aid to admitted degree or credential students in accordance with a nationally established policy based upon the belief that the student and her/his family are the primary and responsible source for funds to meet educational costs. Financial aid is available to fill the gap between potential resources (parents' contribution, student's and spouse's income, savings, etc.) and expenses. The amount of financial aid is determined by careful evaluation of a student's total financial strength, including income, size of family, allowable expenses and assets.

Pacific Oaks participates in all applicable Federal Financial Aid programs, as well as awarding limited amounts of privately donated funds. Students are eligible for Federal funds at Pacific Oaks College if they: 1) are citizens or permanent residents of the United States; 2) are accepted to or in good academic standing in a degree program. Students must be enrolled at least half-time (defined as 6 units per semester for undergraduate students and 4 units per semester for graduate students) in order to be eligible for aid. There may be additional requirements depending upon the specific program.

Note: Aid covers regular college classes only. It is not available for Extension classes or for units documented through the ABLE Assessment Process.

"Teaching as Performing Art" students participate in exercises designed to help children imagine, enact and reflect upon human experiences.

LIBRARIES

Andrew Norman Library, Westmoreland Place

Site The Andrew Norman Library on the Westmoreland campus supports the degree programs of Pacific Oaks and independent faculty research. The in-depth emphases of the collection are in early childhood education and curriculum development, human development, family systems and therapy, and child care. Materials are purchased which reflect our commitment to examine issues of racism, sexism, homophobia, ability, etc. These books, videos, and audiotapes are meant to supplement the college curriculum at the undergraduate through graduate levels. The collection, which numbers over 18,500 titles, reflects not only current research, but also includes a historical perspective of early childhood.

There are many special collections housed in the Andrew Norman Library. The Friends' Collection, dating back to the mid-1800s, documents the beliefs and traditions of the Society of Friends. Award-winning juvenile books and other books of "distinction" comprise the Children's Historical and Critical Collections. These collections span 200 years of publishing, with the Historical Collection including many readers from the 1800s as well as many seminal works in the field of early childhood.

In addition, the library subscribes to approximately 120 periodicals and indices in early education, adult education, human development, family therapy, and the related social sciences. We have access to hundreds of other periodical titles through our online database services and ERIC and Psyc-Lit on CD-ROM.

The library also houses a growing collection of audiovisual materials and equipment. Books and other materials for required and recommended course-related reading are made available through the "reserve" section of the library.

Acquisitions for the collection are made based on faculty and student recommendations as well as valuable review sources. Users are encouraged to offer suggestions.

As part of its services the library offers formal bibliographic instruction as a required component of one of the core classes. Bibliographic instruction is also available through a number of the other classes offered at the discretion of the instructor. The librarians also provide assistance in specialized research and other reference services. Interlibrary loan services and on-line database searches are available through the library as well.

It is necessary to have a current Student I.D. card (available in Business Office) to check out library materials. Students who are on an official Leave of Absence may purchase a library guest card, which is good for one year. During the semester, library hours are Mondays through Thursdays, 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.; Fridays, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Sundays, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Closed holidays.

Children's Library, California Blvd. Site The Children's Library, located on the Children's School campus, houses a small collection of juvenile books as well as AV materials. The Library has just moved into a newly renovated space in La Loma Yard. The parents of the Children's School have been dedicated in their support of the Library and efforts are currently underway to plan and redesign a "Children's Library for the 21st Century." Plans include an expanded collection for the children, particularly in anti-bias literacy materials, appropriate computer resources for children and adults, and a parent resource center.

Scott Zimmer, Assistant Librarian,
Andrew Norman Library.

ARCHIVES

The Marianne Wolman Archives is housed at the Westmoreland Place site adjacent to the library. The main purpose of the archives is to preserve and make available primary source material pertaining to professionals who worked in the field of early childhood from the turn of the century onward. The archives also serves as a repository of documents relating to the history of Pacific Oaks College and Children's School. The Archives is open by appointment only and is available for use by researchers, including faculty and students, by special permission.

Appointments may be made by contacting the head librarian at (626) 397-1355 or an archives volunteer at (626) 397-1393.

RESEARCH CENTER

The Pacific Oaks Research Center coordinates action research projects carried out by faculty and staff, and practical outcomes that support quality improvement and new approaches to serving children and families. The Research Center is located at 65 South Grand Avenue, Pasadena. For further information, please contact the Coordinator of Grants and Contracts at (626) 397-1315 or 1389.

Students may incur legal fees and substantial finance charges.

8. Follow up on understandings and agreements with the student services offices and faculty.
9. Students who believe they have followed directions, have met deadlines, and who still have a problem with one or more student services offices or instructors, should contact the Student Success Director who will act as a facilitator in resolving the problem.
10. Keep copies of all transactions, records and receipts. These copies will verify transactions in the event a document has been misplaced or if there is a disagreement.
11. Students are responsible for checking their mailbox at regular intervals.
12. Submit change of name, address, or phone number to College Records in writing with supporting documents (court order, drivers license, or other form of positive identification). Name changes apply to permanent student files (but not their contents) and computer records; mentions of your previous name as it appears throughout your narrative evaluations, which are part of your official transcript record, are not changed.
13. Requests for a change of program must be submitted to the Admissions Office. Notification will be provided when it is approved.
14. It is the student's responsibility to check office hours before driving to Pacific Oaks. It is recommended that students call offices, faculty or the bookstore before driving to the campus.
15. Park in designated areas only. Please refer to the Student Handbook for additional information.
16. All Pacific Oaks College students are asked to be willing to engage actively in thinking, discussion, and change as we all learn about the nature, dynamics and impact of bias and oppression, and the ways in which theories, practices and institutions are oppressive. It is important that we all be willing to risk growing and changing together, rather than clinging to old theories and practices simply because they are familiar and comfortable.
17. Pacific Oaks College's anti-bias commitment applies to all areas of discrimination, including those based on race, ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, gender, age, disability. Respect is expected to be shown toward persons in all categories, both generally, and as individuals. It is each student's responsibility to approach interactions and diversity openly, and to act from one's centered, adult compassionate self.

CHILDREN IN THE CLASSROOM

The Pacific Oaks mission statement reflects a commitment to meeting the needs of children and families. In keeping with our mission, we actively and knowingly recruit students who have family and other obligations. Given this, the administration, faculty and staff of the college understand that situations may arise where a student will need to bring an infant or young child to class. When such a situation arises, the student is asked to notify the instructor in advance, if possible, so that the presence of the child can be accommodated within the context of the classroom setting.

Louise Derman-Sparks, faculty and author with the A.B.C. Task Force of Anti-Bias Curriculum: Tools for Empowering Young Children.

Chikki Sugama, exchange student with Otani College, Japan.

The personal care of the child (feeding, diapering, etc.) should be handled discreetly and in such a way as to not interfere with the ongoing work of the class. If, in the view of the instructor, the educational process of the class is being disrupted, the student may be asked to remove the child from the classroom. Students who have concerns about the policy and/or its implementation should discuss their concerns with the student and/or instructor involved. If the matter cannot be resolved at that level, the matter may be referred to the Dean of Student Services for review.

It is the College's hope that all adults at Pacific Oaks will grow in their appreciation of and tolerance for the presence of children in their environments, despite the complexity that children may produce in an academic setting. As students of human development, we expect that problems will occur; our aim is not to eliminate the problems, but to become skillful problem-solvers. The presence of differences (in age, culture, language, ability, lifestyle and values) in any group adds to its potential for conflict—and for the growth of all its members—and offers us experience in collegial conflict resolution.

PRIVACY RIGHTS

Pacific Oaks College recognizes and conforms to the regulations set in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (The Buckley Amendment). Students have access to their records, with the exception of those considered confidential under the Act. Students may make an appointment to view their records in the College Records Office during regular business hours. Files may not be removed from that office. Students may obtain copies of their records, except, again, those covered under the Act (i.e., copy of the academic record for which a financial "hold" exists; transcript of an original or source document existing elsewhere; confidential letters/recommendations associated with admission). A copying fee may be assessed.

Within the Pacific Oaks community, only those members, individually or collectively, acting in the student's educational interest are allowed access to student educational records, except when information is required by: judicial order; state or federal agents in connection with audit or evaluation of federal legal requirements; for financial aid requirements; an accrediting organization; organizations conducting educational studies, provided the studies will not permit personal identification. Information released from Pacific Oaks College will state that no other party shall have access without the written consent of the student. Any information regarding students that is not personally identifiable may be released at the discretion of the Academic Vice President and/or Dean of Student Services.

Students may challenge the contents of their educational records on the grounds that they are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate, by discussing their problems informally with the Director of Registration and Records. If student and Director agree, records will be amended. If agreement is not reached, a statement of challenge should be submitted in writing to the Academic Vice President or Dean of Student Services, who will review the complaint and take necessary action.

At its discretion, the institution may provide Directory Information in accordance with the provision of the Act. Directory Information includes: student name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, units currently enrolled, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and previous educational agencies or institutions attended by the student. Requests for non-disclosure must be filed with College Records at the beginning of each academic year (within the first two weeks of the semester) and remain in effect for one year. Students may make written requests for non-disclosure of information at two levels: 1) Phone and address only, or 2) non-disclosure of any information (this level of confidentiality would result in a response to any inquiries about you that "Pacific Oaks has no information about that individual." You would need to provide a written release to anyone, including loan companies and employers, who might need verification of your status at Pacific Oaks.) It is Pacific Oaks' policy that failure on the part of any student to request withholding of Directory Information indicates individual approval for disclosure.

For a copy of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act contact: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Office, Department of Education, Switzer Building, Washington, D.C. 20202

STUDENT CONDUCT

Students enrolled in the college are expected to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the College's function as an educational institution. Behavior that is disruptive and/or interferes with the educational process is disrespectful of the rights of others and is not acceptable.

Academic dishonesty (ie. cheating, forgery, plagiarism) depreciates the learning experience and may be grounds for dismissal. It is fundamental that students contribute to the ideal of academic integrity and accept individual responsibility for their work.

In most instances accusations are based on evidence which is not contested by the accused student. The incidents shall be resolved between the parties involved and a written report will be filed in the student's permanent folder so that any future incidents may be referred to the Academic Vice President.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

The Student Rights and Responsibilities outlined on page 27 echo Pacific Oaks' strong commitment to creating and maintaining an environment free from any type of discrimination. However, the college recognizes the need to establish a more defined policy regarding sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is destructive to the mission of the institution and will not be tolerated. The following is the College policy for sexual harassment complaints. Because of the importance of this policy, it is everyone's responsibility to bring such matters to the attention of proper personnel as quickly as possible so that prompt, effective action can be taken. Pacific Oaks cannot act on matters of which it is unaware.

Sexual Harassment Defined: Sexual harassment, exploitation, or intimidation consists of nonconsensual sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical contact when:

- a. submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a term of admission, academic standing or employment;
- b. submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for academic evaluation or employment decision;
- c. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's educational or work performance, or of creating a hostile, offensive or intimidating environment for learning or working.

Who May File a Complaint: Any student, staff or faculty member may bring a complaint of sexual harassment against any other member of the College Community who is believed to have violated the policy.

How to File a Complaint: An informal complaint alleging a violation of the sexual harassment policy may be brought to any appropriate member of the College community. Examples of appropriate members of the College community would be: Supervisor, Academic Vice President, Dean of Student Services, Coordinator of Student Success or Personnel Manager. A person wishing to make a sexual harassment complaint has the following options:

- a. Informal resolution of the complaint by speaking directly with the person believed to be in violation of the policy; or by addressing the person believed to be in violation of the policy with the assistance of the appropriate member of the College community if agreed upon by said member.
- b. By filing a formal complaint with the Personnel Manager.

Informal Complaints: If a person wishes to pursue informal resolution of the complaint, the following procedures are relevant:

- a. The appropriate member of the College community pursuing the complaint with the complainant will notify the Personnel Manager in writing as soon as possible as to the existence of the complaint and will provide a summary of the allegations. If the complaint involves the Personnel Manager, the President should be notified.
- b. In the informal complaint procedure, the person initially receiving the complaint will inform the complainant of the pertinent considerations involved, such as:

"Pacific Oaks reveals many paths to the knowledge which grows teachers who truly value children. I deeply appreciate the unique experience of the credential program which has greatly enhanced my professional career."

Within the add/drop period	100%
After the add/drop period	0%

Note: Students who do not attend a class and who do not officially drop the class will be charged for the class.

Students are advised that if they received Financial Aid and would be due a refund in accordance with the above schedule, any refund due would be returned to the Financial Aid Programs rather than to the student according to the following:

The portion of a refund or overpayment to be returned to the Title IV programs is the lesser of either the amount of Title IV aid (minus work study earnings) received for the payment period or the amount obtained by multiplying the institutional refund by the appropriate fraction.

CLASS NUMBERING SYSTEM

All classes are open to all students, except as noted in this catalog. With the exception of ED (Education), CD (Child Development) and Sp Ed (Special Education) all classes have the HD (Human Development) prefix. Class numbering does not indicate class level. All classes are considered graduate level, except DC 192, DC 401–406, and HD 098 and HD 099.

Classes may not be repeated for additional credit except as noted in individual class descriptions.

CLASS WAIVER PROCESS

Certain required classes in the Pacific Oaks curriculum may be waived by students who meet specific criteria. Processes currently exist for waiver of the following requirement:

1. Thesis Development (HD 277, Part A and/or B and/or C)

Requirements met by waiver do not appear on the transcript. Waiver forms and instructions can be obtained from College Records or academic advisors. The approval process begins with the academic advisors. Please consult with your advisor to determine eligibility to attempt a class waiver.

CLASS PETITION PROCESS

Certain requirements in the Pacific Oaks curriculum may be met by petition by students who meet specific criteria.

Requirements met by approved petition are posted to the transcript with zero (0) units and a grade of "PT" (credit by petition). Petition forms and detailed instructions can be obtained from College Records or academic advisors. The petition approval process begins with your academic advisor. Please consult with your advisor to determine eligibility to attempt a petition.

Petition processes currently exist for the following requirements:

Public School Directed Teaching Petition Process

Successful completion of two Public School Directed Teaching experiences is required by the California State Commission on Teacher Credentialing for a Multiple Subjects Teaching Credential. Petitioning a second Directed Teaching is allowed only if a student has shown exceptional competence in completing the First Directed Teaching in a Public School setting and has demonstrated competence through a petition portfolio. Waiver of a second Directed Teaching is never automatic! The petition process takes time. It is critical that students thoroughly understand the process and ask for clarification at the beginning of their studies at Pacific

Oaks. The advisor will assist the student in determining the age group appropriate to the petition and in identifying the faculty who will need to review the petition.

EVALUATIONS

Pacific Oaks views goal-setting and evaluation as part of a shared learning process in which instructors and students are both actively involved. For this reason, Pacific Oaks does not issue letter grades as a means of evaluation. Evaluation is by written statement in which the instructor and student have had direct input. These written narrative evaluations become part of the student's transcript.

Evaluations often include information in response to the following questions:

- 1) Did the student engage intellectually with the class material?
- 2) Did the student engage affectively with the class material?
- 3) Was the student skilled in written communication?
- 4) How did the student participate in the dialogue process and in class discussions?
- 5) What is the student's ability to implement the class material in her/his own classroom or job?
- 6) Did the student demonstrate appropriate level(s) of competence?

The satisfactorily completed course work of an admitted student in good standing represents the equivalent of an overall "B" average or better. Written evaluations can be translated into grades for students who submit documented proof from graduate institutions or financial aid scholarships to which they are applying stating they will accept letter grades only. Requests for letter grades should be sent to the Academic Vice President's Office with required documentation.

Satisfactory (S) This grade is given when a student has successfully completed all class requirements.

Petition (PT) Requirement satisfied by petition. Student has demonstrated satisfactory knowledge of class content through petition process.

May Complete (MC) A May Complete enables a student who has completed a substantial amount of work for a class to satisfy the remaining requirements for passing that class within a specific time and according to specific requirements determined by the class instructor. Students have up to one month prior to the end of the semester following the term in which a May Complete was given (until the end of either April or November) in order to submit any written work required to satisfy the completion of the class. If the May Complete requirements are not satisfied by the end of the semester following the term in which the MC was assigned, a grade of Permanent Incomplete will be given. (See May Complete Policy on page 35.)

Permanent Incomplete (I) Students will receive a Permanent Incomplete when: they have received a May Complete and the contract period has elapsed without successful completion of the contracted work; or the instructor determines that a Merilee Runyan, Acting Director of Teacher Education at Pacific Oaks College Northwest.

May Complete is not warranted. In both instances full payment for the class is required. To receive credit for the class, it will be necessary to register and pay for the class again.

Evaluation Delayed (ED) A student will receive an Evaluation Delayed when the instructor has not submitted an evaluation. The College will take necessary steps to insure that evaluations are received in a timely manner; however, students should also take responsibility to follow up with the instructors.

Work in Progress (WP) Work in Progress is given when a student is enrolled in a class, Independent Study or Master's Project which extends beyond one semester.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Request for Leave of Absence forms are to be filled out by students and are available in the Schedule of Classes and in College Records. The completed Leave of Absence form or letter of notification is returned to College Records. Students are expected to maintain continuous registration. Students who drop out for a semester or longer without a Leave of Absence will be required to pay a re-entry fee. After five years of absence, students must apply for readmission, including payment of the application fee.

TRANSCRIPT REQUESTS

Deadline is usually:

Weekday Classes: end of second week of term

Weekend Classes: two weeks after first weekend

Any refund due to a student will be in accordance with the refund schedule (see page 32).

CHANGE OF DEGREE/ PROGRAM/SPECIALIZATION

Students wishing to add, drop or change their degree, program and/or specialization, must complete a change of program form in the Admissions Office and pay a change of program fee. One fee is charged per date of transaction. The fee is waived for students enrolled in their first term.

ELIGIBILITY FOR REGISTRATION & COMMENCEMENT

It is the policy of Pacific Oaks College and Children's School that no student is eligible to register or participate in commencement until any and all outstanding balances owed to the institution from a previous semester have been paid in full. The Business Office must also verify that payment in full has been received.

This policy does not exclude students on payment plans. Students on payment plans can only register after their last payment is made to and noted by the Business Office. Payment plans should be completed by November 30th for the Fall semester and April 30th for the Spring semester.

USE OF WEEKLONG CLASSES FOR DEGREE PROGRAMS

Students may use up to nine (9) units of Weeklong classes toward their degree. Student wishing to apply more than nine units of college work through Weeklongs must submit a written request to her/his advisor. The advisor will make a decision based upon the student's performance in other classes.

MAY COMPLETE POLICY

A May Complete is only available to students who have completed a substantial amount of work required for a particular class. Instructors are responsible for notifying students that a May Complete is being awarded. Faculty will discuss remaining class requirements with the student involved and agree upon the criteria for satisfactory completion of the class. A written contract will then be issued, setting out the conditions for successfully completing the class. Faculty are responsible for making arrangements with other instructors in those cases where repeating the class is a component of the May Complete contract. Evaluations for May Completes are submitted, following the same time line for classes conducted during the term in which the MC is completed.

If written work is required to complete the class, this must be submitted to the class instructor at least one month prior to the end of the semester following the one in which the May Complete is given [i.e., the end of April (for Fall/January classes) or November (for Spring/Summer/August classes)]. Instructors may set an earlier deadline if they wish. Students who fail to meet the conditions of the May Complete contract will automatically receive a Permanent Incomplete.

Students with six or more units of May Complete may not register for the following term until those classes have been completed.

VETERANS POLICIES

This institution will conduct an evaluation of the veteran's or eligible person's previous education and training, grant appropriate credit, shorten the veteran's or eligible person's duration of the course proportionately and notify the Veteran's Administration and student accordingly.

A veteran or eligible person who obtains a grade point deficiency below an overall "B" average and accumulates more than 6 units of "May Complete" or "Incomplete" will have her/his veteran's benefits terminated. A veteran or eligible person may not register for additional classes until such time as the "MC"s have been removed. ■

EDUCATION

ED 220 3 UNITS
ELEMENTARY CURRICULUM
WORKSHOP: INTRODUCTION TO DEVELOPMENTAL CURRICULUM AND SCIENCE

Students participate as hands-on learners in an exploration of curriculum theory and practice. Basic principles of science and discovery-learning are presented as a vehicle for understanding and implementing an interactive curriculum. Students build a framework for curriculum development through experimentation with materials, classroom organization and management, and educational and social issues. Concepts of the open classroom, individualized curriculum, the teacher-as-learner, and critical thinking will be discussed and modeled.

Prerequisite: HD 218 Cognitive Development: How Children Learn or equivalent course work in theories of cognitive development.

ED 221 3 UNITS
CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT:
MATHEMATICS

An integrative approach to elementary mathematics curriculum, from experiential concrete manipulation to abstract symbolization and concept development. The purpose is to connect theory and practice within a climate of excitement, freedom, openness and ease. Participants will explore the elements of physical and psychosocial environments, classroom management, curriculum materials, and learning activities as they create their own frameworks for developmentally appropriate, child-centered curricula. Participants will experience the joy of discovery, the satisfaction of learning new skills, and the challenge of committing to the processes of imagination and inner growth.

Prerequisites: HD 218 Cognitive Development: How Children Learn or equivalent course work in theories of cognitive development and Ed 220 Elementary Curriculum Workshop: Introduction to Developmental Curriculum and Science (may be taken concurrently).

ED 222 3 UNITS
CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT:
READING AND LANGUAGE ARTS

This class offers an introduction to the essential aspects of an integrative, developmental reading and language arts program for the elementary (K-6) classroom. Emphasis is on developing a framework for learning that incorporates real life experience as a source of oral and written language. In a creative, exciting environment, students will learn to plan and implement a transitional reading/language arts program using both traditional and innovative approaches to serve a diverse population. Drawing on the works of Ashton-Warner, Paulo Freire, Frank Smith, Donald Graves, and others, the class explores theories and practices in the teaching of reading and writing; literacy issues, and socio-cultural contexts and biases; whole language, language experience and integrated phonics; journal writing; reading for meaning and critical thinking; individual assessment of language skills; the role of dramatics and music in language development; and how to implement literature-based curriculum. Special emphasis is placed on working with bilingual students and students with limited English proficiency. Guest speakers and films will complement workshop activities and discussion.

Prerequisites: HD 218 Cognitive Development: How Children Learn or equivalent course work in theories of cognitive development and Ed 220 Elementary Curriculum Workshop: Introduction to Developmental Curriculum and Science (may be taken concurrently).

Current work with children in elementary school settings is strongly recommended.

ED 223 3 UNITS
CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT:
SOCIAL STUDIES AND INTEGRATED ARTS

Students, as teachers/learners, will create a conceptual framework for elementary social studies that weaves together language arts, drama, literature, music, dance, and visual arts as integral parts of an exploration of the historical and socio-cultural forces that shape our lives. Focuses on critical inquiry and cooperative learning, using oral history, journal writing, and the community as ways to approach social studies content. Examines standard and "multi-cultural" texts, materials, and curricula used in public schools, as well as alternative materials, which will be used to analyze the impact of racism, sexism, and sexual stereotyping, classism, and physical disabilities on children's learning. The relationship between social studies curriculum and education for critical thinking will be actively explored through hands-on activities, dialogue and debate, group and individual projects, discussion of current issues in education, and the use of film and video. This class will also count for credit in Humanities, Psychomotor Activities, and Audio-Visual Methods and Materials.

Prerequisites: HD 218 Cognitive Development: How Children Learn or equivalent course work in theories of cognitive development, and HD 282 Social and Political Contexts of Human Development, or HD 360 Advanced Studies in Diversity (or equivalent course work in anti-bias and bicultural issues), and Ed 220 Elementary Curriculum Workshop: Introduction to Developmental Curriculum and Science (may be taken concurrently).

Current work with children in elementary school settings is strongly recommended.

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT:
BILINGUAL INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

This class is designed to provide framework for instruction of children whose primary language is one other than English. Constructivist paradigms will be utilized to provide relevant theoretical and practical information related to bilingual instructional methods with a goal of development of cultural competence and cultural respect for young learners growing up in a bilingual world. This class meets the requirements for BCLAD Certification.

ED 242 3 UNITS
TEACHING AS PERFORMING ART

Participants explore creative drama as an improvisational, non-exhibitional, process-centered form of expression in which students are guided by a leader to imagine, enact, and reflect upon human experiences. The purpose is to provide an alternative approach to teaching social studies and integrated arts which open children's minds, stimulate their imaginations and language abilities, and spark their enthusiasm for continued personal development and discovery. This class may also serve as a practical guide for classroom teachers, recreational leaders, and others who want to initiate creative drama activities in a variety of subject areas and need help in getting started.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND LEARNING

This course provides interns with an overview of theories, research and knowledge of human development and learning across the life span, with a particular focus on critical pedagogy and the school-age years. Through the works of Darder, Erikson, Freire, Gay, Gardner, Gilligan, Hale, Kohlberg, Piaget, Ramirez and Castaneda, Vygotsky and others, interns explore aspects of physical, cultural, social, ethnic identity and intellectual growth and development. We begin with self-knowledge as we reflect on our own cultural identity and life-span development issues. Theoretical knowledge of the issues and behaviors at each age will be covered and bridged with practical classroom application. The course will also support the development of observation skills and formal and informal assessment strategies related to the ongoing identity, intellectual, social, linguistic and physical development of the learner from a transformative learning and culturally democratic perspective. Observing and supporting the learners' development of cultural negotiation and cultural democracy skills are included in this class.

This course is the equivalent of HD 200 for PONW Teacher Education interns.

Lorraine Lima, Pacific Oaks alumna and Trustee.

ED 513 3 UNITS
TEACHING AND LEARNING IN A DIVERSE WORLD

Interns learn to observe and identify key characteristics of a successful teaching/learning environment. Attention is given to the basic philosophies of education which underlie current theoretical models of the classroom. These models are examined in detail from historical and functional perspectives. Interns explore ways to integrate these approaches in developing appropriate curriculum, effective management systems, assessment tools and classroom design and structure. Interns explore the role of the teacher in establishing classroom tone. CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT:
MATHEMATICS

This seminar is based on the curriculum standards of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics as well as state learning goals (EALRs) in mathematics. Theory and practice are interwoven to establish an understanding of mathematics based on a problem-solving approach to mathematics instruction. Developmental theory, observations of children, information regarding learning styles, multiple intelligences and cognitive science provide a framework for the development of appropriate mathematical experiences. Interns broaden their own understanding of number concepts, pattern, statistics and probability, geometry, and spatial sense, measurement and logical thinking through activities which develop concepts from the concrete manipulative-based level through the stages to abstract understanding and symbolization. The selection of appropriate materials and activities which will build strong conceptual understanding is stressed. Issues related to socio-cultural contexts and biases are integrated into the constructive, active learning environments. The role of assessment will be addressed through observation, discussion and information regarding the use of problem-solving tasks and portfolios of work.

This course is the equivalent of ED 221 for PONW Teacher Education interns.

EARLY CHILDHOOD THEMES AND LIFE CYCLE ISSUES

Each stage of life poses a task to be accomplished. These tasks appear as a challenge and bring the chance for growth, but also a fear of failure and discomforting disequilibrium. Themes which begin in early childhood—attachment, separation, autonomy, accomplishment and failure—recur later in the life cycle. This class explores in depth how themes which begin in early childhood recur later in the life cycle. Building on knowledge of Erik Erikson's theory and other psychosocial and cognitive theories, the participants will add and integrate theoretical and personal knowledge of growth during the life cycle and the interaction between the contexts of development and psychological development. We will examine our own developmental paths and look at choices made and options taken or rejected. A research project focusing on a developmental issue is required. The class will emphasize development in adulthood.

Prerequisites for HD 201:

- All of the following:
 - M.A. or post baccalaureate student
 - Knowledge of Erik Erikson's theory and other psychosocial theories
 - Knowledge of cognitive theories
 - Ability to observe and interpret data

HD 232
COMMUNICATION SKILLS AND INDIVIDUAL DYNAMICS3 UNITS

In spite of the fact that we spend a great deal of our time with others, rarely do we have an opportunity to see ourselves clearly as we interact with others. The capacity to see ourselves clearly in social interactions is the nucleus of our empathy and the basis of the helping process. Hence, knowledge of ourselves is, indeed, very valuable, in that it leads into the worlds of other people. The focus of the present class is largely experiential, with a central objective being the improvement of our communications skills and the use of ourselves in positive ways in interactions. Students will have the opportunity to learn about themselves by sharing their thoughts, ideas and feelings with group members. A variety of techniques will be used to assist us in our learning and growing. Among these will be active listening, re-framing, role-playing and socio-drama. Context-building for mutual understanding will be an ongoing component of the class.

COMMUNICATION AND THE LIFE CYCLE3 UNITS

A class about life cycles and communication concepts. It is a goal of this class to enhance understanding of the interconnected and interdependent components of communication and tasks of various life cycle changes. Whether it's an infant learning about trust, an older adult learning to adjust to physical and mental changes, or any of the many stages in between, we all have a vital need to communicate with one another. Focusing on specific life cycle stages and how attention to communication can facilitate engagement with the task of that stage will provide valuable information for personal and professional relationships. Communication and life style issues will be addressed in a holistic way, looking at the needs of both parties as well as the social context of interactions.

Cultural and gender issues and ways to support cultural expression and non-sexist play opportunities will be considered. Although our focus will be on early years, we will address the integrative and transformative function of play as it contributes to the lives of individuals throughout the life span.

Issues and trends in early childhood education are considered from a developmental, cross-cultural perspective. Implications for older children and adult learners will also be explored.

HD 415 3 UNITS EMERGENT CURRICULUM: REFLECTING LEARNER LIVES

Emergent curriculum is a values based approach to teaching and learning which focuses on who the students are, their socio-cultural context and current issues, in order to shape "what happens" in an educational setting. Decision-making about curriculum should be negotiated by those who know the learners best. In this approach, the focus is on the community that teacher and learners create and involve in their lives together.

In this class, students will explore sources of emergent curriculum, power dynamics, the balance between advanced planning and spontaneity, and issues of cultural relevancy and accountability. Participants will be required to actively engage in their own classroom in teacher roles that are central to the emergent curriculum process—observation, analysis, collaboration, research and documentation. Implication for learners of all ages will be considered, with a focus on the early childhood classroom.

HD 420 3 UNITS THE ART OF OBSERVATION

Observation is a basic teaching and assessment tool in early childhood education and a necessary skill in the field of counseling. When you observe a child: What do you see? What do you look for and why? How do you interpret what you are seeing? How do you translate what you have observed into goals for intervention? Participants will observe children and adults, share and evaluate frameworks for observation, and get feedback on observational skills.

HD 482 DEVELOPMENTAL PRACTICUM SEMINAR: 5-8 YEARS

This seminar is designed for students placed in the Pacific Oaks Children's School or in off-site kindergarten or primary programs. Based on child-centered theory and best practices, life experiences and the developmental needs of individual children are the cornerstones of curriculum for this age range and consequently, for the seminar. Both cognitive and affective growth are addressed by both the core curriculum and practicum design, which includes hands-on activities in the areas of science and math (such as blocks, math manipulatives, gardening, and cooking); language arts (dictation of stories, poetry, visual, and three-dimensional arts, journals, and books); and social development (families, lifelines, and the exploration of the neighborhood and community).

Additionally, attention is particularly directed to the wide range of readiness in this age group and the resulting implications for the emergence of the foundations of the academic skills (reading, writing, arithmetic). The curriculum balances teacher-initiated with child-initiated activities, demonstrating that the child and the adult are active partners in learning.

Observing children, practicing the writing of developmental summaries, articulating the challenges of an integrated curriculum, working with mainstreaming experiences, involving parents, and learning about environmental education are major components of the practicum. The antibias perspective is woven into the curriculum that includes a focus on conflict resolution and issues of inclusion, respect and diversity in the classroom.

PACIFIC OAKS ALUMNAE/I ASSOCIATION

The Alumnae/i Association helps graduates stay in touch with what's happening at Pacific Oaks. Special alumnae/i-focused events maintain important relationships between alums and the extended Pacific Oaks family, such as faculty and those who participate on thesis committees.

The Association provides opportunities for involvement in the issues that are central to Pacific Oaks: the value of children, embracing diversity, and social justice. The Association also represents alumnae/i interests at all levels of the institution, from Board to faculty to staff and students, and provides input on critical issues regarding curriculum, institutional direction, community relations, and governance.

Membership identifies you as an influential Pacific Oaks constituent. Dues are just $35 per year and include discounts at college functions (both social and academic) and the bookstore, library privileges. Dues are used for such general expenses as scholarships, special events, student recruitment, and maintaining PO's image in the community. Membership provides access to a unique network of professionals in early childhood education and the human development and social justice fields. Special Internet-related services are being developed, such as online job placement and information links.

For more information on how you can become a member, call

"My time at Pacific Oaks was much more than a traditional education for me. Instead, it engaged all of me in an extraordinary personal journey in which I was challenged to process my classroom learning so it became meaningful day to day. I gained not only a wealth of information, but a much broader perspective as a human being and in my relationships with others... My teachers were supportive, giving, demanding, constructive, and empowering. Every class became a journey of self-exploration."

Sue Thompson, MFCC graduate of Pacific Oaks, is Assistant Director and Volunteer Coordinator for Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA).
